The thematic sections of the Journal do not limit the authors in choosing the topic of publication, since if there is interesting, relevant material, the rubrication can be expanded.

The following are not accepted for publication in the Journal: a) copyrighted materials previously published in other publications; b) articles that do not contain new information, compared with previously published results, or contain actual, historical or other errors, as well as articles containing statements and hypotheses that directly contradict established scientific facts; c) materials containing information that constitutes state secrets, official or commercial secrets in accordance with the current legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan and departmental regulations, agreements, etc.; d) materials prohibited for publication in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

An author is responsible for the accuracy and content of the materials provided. The opinions of the authors may not coincide with the point of view of the Editorial Council and the editors. The editors have the right to make the necessary revisions and reductions. Materials are not returned. The publisher does not undertake obligations on the timing of publication. If the material is sent to the author(s) for revision, the date of receipt is the date of return by the author(s) of the revised material. Each author(s) can publish in one issue no more than two materials.

Reception of materials and the formation of the Journal number is carried out in the following terms: 1) until the 30th day of the first month of the quarter – acceptance of materials for publication; 2) until the 30th day of the second month of the quarter – the work of the Editorial Board on the formation of the Journal number; 3) until the 30th day of the third month of the quarter – transfer of the draft number of the Journal to the printing house, publication of the Journal. Requirements for articles to be accepted in the Journal: 1) article for publication must contain the results of original scientific research; 2) text of the article is in the format of doc (Microsoft Word) page – A4, portrait orientation, the volume of the main text up to 8 pages, font Times New Roman, size 14 pt, spacing – 1,0; single line spacing, formatting – in width, paragraph indent – 1,25 cm, margins – 20 mm on all sides, numbering is obligatory at the bottom in the center of the page; 3) article is submitted in electronic form, issued with the following information: in the upper left corner, the UDC index (universal decimal classifier, IRSTI (Interstate rubricator of scientific and technical information) (http://grnti.ru); surname, name, patronymic of the author(s) (no more than 2 authors), academic title, academic degree (if available), information about the place of work of the author, city, country, article title (in capital letters, bold) , abstract (number of words – from 100 to 150) keywords (8-10 words) in Kazakh, Russian and English. Full name of the organization, city, country (if the authors work in different organizations, you must put the same icon next to the author's name and the corresponding organization).

The abstract should not repeat the title of the article, contain formulas, contain bibliographic references, should reflect the summary of the article, keeping the structure of the article.

Keywords should reflect the main content of the article, if possible not repeat the terms of the title and annotations, use the terms from the text of the article, as well as terms defining the subject area and include other important concepts that make it possible to facilitate and expand the possibilities of finding the article by means of an information system; text of the article containing the introduction, materials and methods of research results/discussion, conclusion/summary; information on funding (if applicable); list of information sources used in the preparation of an article (references) is located at the end of the article (including at least 1/3 of foreign sources in a foreign language of the total). The editorial board recommends in the list of references to refer to articles from magazines on global citation indices (Scopus, Web of Science). References should be numbered strictly in the order of mention in the text. The reference number in the text of the article is in square brackets. The first reference in the text to the literature should have the number [1], the second – [2], etc. Electronic resources that do not specify the author of the sources, statistical data, normative legal acts are indicated in page-by-page footnotes and not included in the references list.

The reference to the book in the main text of the article should be accompanied by an indication of the pages used (for example, [2, 545 p.]). References are made in accordance with GOST 7.1.-2003 «Bibliographic record. Bibliographic description. General requirements and rules of drafting». When re-quoting a source, it is assigned an initial citation number. When linking to the Internet resources, the author, the name of the text, the source, the full electronic address of the material, the date of its visit are indicated. Reference to private messages, reports, dissertation and other unpublished materials is not permitted. Work references are also drawn up in the Roman alphabet (References). On the site http://translit.ru there is a program for transliteration of the Russian language into Latin. The author's self-citation is allowed no more than 20% of the number of sources in the list of references. Qualitatively executed and translated abstract, keywords, bibliography increase interest in the article, as well as the likelihood of citing the article by foreign colleagues; 4) for the set of formulas, use the built-in formula editor Microsoft Eguation 3.0. Formulas are typed in the Latin alphabet, font size 11. Only those formulas that are referenced in the text are numbered. Tables, figures (graphic material) should be located after the mention. Each illustration should follow the inscription. Figures should be made clearly, in a format that ensures the clarity of the transfer of all the details, numbered, signed and presented on electronic media. The headings of the table columns begin with capital letters, and subheadings can begin with lowercase letters if they constitute one sentence with a heading.

All abbreviations, with the exception of obviously well-known, should be deciphered when first used in the text. Articles are published free of charge.
